BCSP classroom

DESCRIPTION: Students will approach complex grammar structures and syntax through research and analysis of traits of famous historical figures and events that have influenced Italian history, art, politics, culture and society. Throughout the course students will improve their language skills and, with each discussion topic, deepen their understanding of contemporary Italy.

The first four class meetings will focus on activities of general grammatical review, on a first approach to understanding the city of Bologna, its university, the preparation to oral and written exams and the crucial aspects of the bolognese history and culture.

ACTIVITIES: The activities performed during the course include: reading/analyzing/summarizing of articles and biographies, grammar exercises, conversation, oral presentations, writing assignments. Homework, including composition writing and project preparation, is regularly assigned. All written work must be corrected and revised.

INSTRUCTOR: Guendalina Bamboli has taught at various language centers in Bologna and collaborated with Boston University in Padua. She has been teaching at BCSP since 2018. The focus of her research is the integration of foreign student in the Italian school system.

CONTENT: Discovering Italian culture: our territory as seen through the lens of literature, history, cinema and the arts. Also, current events in the Italian contemporary society will be taken into consideration so to facilitate a deeper understanding of Italian society.
